

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MICROSOFT CORPORATION, a
Washington corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

SHAHZAD SHAHNAWAZ; OVE
LUNDBERG; and CERTIFICATION
TRENDZ, LTD., a foreign corporation,
d/b/a TESTKING,

Defendants.

No.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Microsoft Corporation, by and through its undersigned attorneys, alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action by Microsoft Corporation (“Microsoft”) to recover damages and obtain injunctive and other relief arising from infringements of Microsoft’s copyrights and breaches of a settlement agreement by Shahzad Shahnawaz and Certification Trendz, Ltd. (“defendants”). These claims arise out of defendants’ unlawful reproduction and distribution of Microsoft Certification Exams, and questions and answers contained therein. Microsoft further seeks specific performance from nominal defendant Ove Lundberg.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Microsoft Corporation is a Washington corporation with its principal place of business in Redmond, Washington.

3. Defendant Shahzad Shahnawaz is a citizen of Pakistan. Shahnawaz owns and controls defendant Certification Trendz, Ltd. and personally participated in and/or had the right and ability to supervise, direct and control Certification Trendz, Ltd.'s wrongful conduct alleged in this Complaint, derived direct financial benefit from that wrongful conduct, and is personally liable for that wrongful conduct.

4. Ove Lundberg is a citizen of Sweden. Upon information and belief, Lundberg was and is an employee or agent of Shahnawaz and Certification Trendz, Ltd., and in that capacity registered certain domain names owned and controlled by Shahnawaz and Certification Trendz, Ltd. Lundberg was and is the registered administrative and/or technical contact for domain names owned and controlled by Shahnawaz and Certification Trendz, Ltd. Lundberg is joined in this action as a nominal defendant for purposes of carrying out the specific performance and other relief sought in this Complaint.

5. Defendant Certification Trendz, Ltd., doing business as "Testking," is a company formed and operated under the laws of the United Kingdom. Certification Trendz is owned and controlled by Shahnawaz and, among other things, functions as a shell company through which Shahnawaz processes proceeds derived from defendants' unlawful reproduction and distribution of Microsoft Certification Exams and transfers those proceeds to Pakistan.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Microsoft's claim for copyright infringement pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 501 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), and supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) over Microsoft's claim

1 arising from defendants' breaches of the March 2007 Settlement Agreement because that
2 claim is so related to Microsoft's claim for copyright infringement that it forms part of the 3 same case or controversy and derives from a common nucleus of operative facts.

4 7. Additionally, this Court has original jurisdiction over Microsoft's claims
5 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value
6 of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between a Washington corporation and 7 citizens or subjects of foreign states.

8 8. This Court has personal jurisdiction over defendants and nominal defendant
9 Lundberg because they have conducted business activities in and directed to Washington,
10 are primary participants in tortious acts in and directed to Washington, have used personal 11 property in Washington and have purposely availed themselves of the opportunity to 12 conduct commercial activities in this state. Additionally, this Court has personal 13 jurisdiction pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2).

14 9. Additionally, this Court has personal jurisdiction over defendants and 15 nominal defendant Lundberg because they consented to jurisdiction in the Stipulated 16 Permanent Injunction and the Order entered thereon in Microsoft Corp. v. Shahzad
17 Shahnawaz, et al., No. C 06-1116 JLR, and in the March 2007 Settlement Agreement with 18 Microsoft.

19 10. Venue is proper in the Western District of Washington pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
20 §§ 1391(b), 1391(d) and 1400(a). Additionally, venue is proper because defendants and 21 nominal defendant Lundberg consented to venue in the Stipulated Permanent Injunction and 22 the Order entered thereon in Microsoft Corp. v. Shahzad Shahnawaz, et al., No. C 06-1116
23 JLR, and in the March 2007 Settlement Agreement with Microsoft.

MICROSOFT CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS

11. Microsoft is in the business of, among other things, certifying the competency of individuals engaged in various fields of the information technology industry. To that end, Microsoft publishes Certification Exams with respect to the following Certification Programs offered by Microsoft: (1) Microsoft Certified Technology Associate, (2) Microsoft Certified Technical Specialist, (3) Microsoft Certified IT Professional, (4) Microsoft Certified Professional Developer, (5) Microsoft Certified Master, (6) Microsoft Certified Architect, (7) Microsoft Certified Desktop Support Technician, (8) Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator, (9) Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer, (10) Microsoft Certified Application Developer, (11) Microsoft Certified Solution Developer, (12) Microsoft Certified Database Administrator, (13) Microsoft Office Specialist, (14) Microsoft Certified Trainer, (15) Microsoft Certified Professional, and (16) Microsoft Certified Learning Consultant (collectively, “the Microsoft Certification Programs”).

12. The purposes of the Microsoft Certification Programs are to set an industry wide, worldwide recognized standard of basic competency levels in various fields of the information technology industry; to maximize efficiency in recruiting, hiring, training, and promoting employees; to help fill the needs of today’s information technology workforce by providing individuals with skills in demand; and to provide industry educators with the standards necessary to prepare individuals to meet the job requirements of the current industry.

13. In order to become certified under the Microsoft Certification Programs, a candidate must pass the required Certification Exams published by Microsoft. Microsoft owns and offers as part of its Certification Programs more than 50 Certification Exams. Each Certification Exam is an original work of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression by Microsoft.

1 14. Microsoft employs multiple means to protect its proprietary and other rights
2 in its Certification Exams. For example, Microsoft protects its Certification Exams by 3 requiring certified professionals to agree to a Non-Disclosure Agreement. Individuals who
4 pass the necessary Certification Exams are eligible to designate themselves as Microsoft
5 Certified Professionals (“MCPs”). Before an individual may use the MCP designation, he 6 or she must agree to the Microsoft Certified Professional Program Agreement, which 7 identifies the Certification Exams as Microsoft’s trade secrets and prohibits, among other
8 things, unauthorized disclosure or distribution of Certification Exam materials.

9 15. Microsoft further protects its Certification Exams by registering its 10 copyrights therein with the United States Copyright Office utilizing a secure filing
11 procedure in compliance with the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., and Copyright
12 Office Regulations. The Certification Exams in which Microsoft holds valid copyrights

16. Microsoft further protects its Certification Exams by utilizing other technological measures to control access to the exams and grants access to the exams only to those individuals authorized by Microsoft. These technological measures effectively protect Microsoft’s exclusive right of reproduction and distribution of the exams.

PRIOR LAWSUIT

17. Microsoft previously sued Shahnawaz, Lundberg and Certification Trendz for copyright infringement and other claims, Microsoft Corp. v. Shahzad Shahnawaz, et al., No. C 06-1116 JLR (United States District Court, Western District of Washington). Microsoft alleged that defendants were actively engaged in the unlawful reproduction and

1 distribution of Microsoft Certification Exams through multiple websites owned and 2 controlled by them. The domain testking.com is the most prominent and well known of 3 defendants' websites. A partial list of domain names owned and controlled by defendants
4 is attached as Exhibit 12.

5 18. As set forth above, Microsoft employs multiple measures to protect the 6 confidentiality of its Certification Exams and, because they are securely filed, not even the 7 Copyright Office or the Library of Congress maintains copies of these works. Despite those 8 controls, defendants misappropriated Microsoft Certification Exams from unknown sources
9 and were reproducing and distributing actual questions and answers as self-proclaimed 10 "study guides," which defendants made available to the public, for significant fees, on their 11 testking.com and related websites.

12 19. In or about March 2007, Microsoft and defendants executed a confidential
13 Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement") that resulted in a dismissal of the prior 14 litigation. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, defendants agreed to cease and refrain 15 from reproducing or distributing Microsoft Certification Exams, or any portion thereof, and 16 from infringing any of Microsoft's copyrights or intellectual property rights to its 17 Certification Exams.

18 20. By Order dated April 5, 2007, United States District Judge James L. Robart
19 entered a Stipulated Permanent Injunction ("Permanent Injunction") submitted by the 20 parties pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. That Permanent Injunction
21 enjoined defendants from engaging in any of the following activities, and from assisting,
22 aiding, or abetting any other person or entity in engaging in or performing any of the 23 following activities:

- 24 a. registering for or subscribing to any Microsoft Certification
25 Programs in the future;

b. copying, using, marketing, selling, distributing, publishing, reproducing, disseminating, offering or otherwise transferring in any way any actual Microsoft Certification Exam, or any portion thereof;

c. infringing any of Microsoft's intellectual property rights to its Certification Exams, including but not limited to, by directly or indirectly owning or operating any Internet website at which infringing materials are sold or made available or by knowingly aiding or abetting infringement by others of Microsoft's intellectual property rights to its Certification Exams; and

d. infringing any of Microsoft's Registered Trademarks, Servicemarks, or Copyrights or knowingly aiding or abetting infringement by others of Microsoft's Registered Trademarks, Servicemarks, or Copyrights.

21. The Settlement Agreement provided specific remedies in the event of a breach by defendants. Those remedies included an assignment to Microsoft of defendants' domain names listed in Exhibit 12 in the event of an uncured material breach of the Settlement Agreement, occurring within three years of the execution of that agreement, and as determined by the United States District Court.

22. To preserve the remedies specified in the Settlement Agreement, the Permanent Injunction submitted by the parties and entered by Judge Robart included the following restraints on transfers of defendants' domain names:

For a period of three years from entry of this Order, Defendants shall not transfer the domain names listed on [Exhibit 12] from their current registrar, Enom, Inc. Any and all domain name registrars, including but not limited to Enom, Inc., are hereby directed to prevent transfer of those domain names to another domain name registrar during this three year period.

23. Expiration of the three-year term in the Settlement Agreement has been extended to October 31, 2010, pursuant to the terms of a tolling agreement between the parties.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

24. Subsequent to the execution of the Settlement Agreement and entry of the Permanent Injunction, and continuing to the present, defendants have engaged in the unlawful reproduction and distribution of Microsoft Certification Exams, in violation of the Copyright Act and the Settlement Agreement.

25. In or about September 2008, Microsoft obtained and examined purported study materials available on defendants' websites. Microsoft compared the study materials to Microsoft Certification Exams, and determined that the materials available on defendants' websites were word-for-word copies of Microsoft Certification Exams, in violation of the Copyright Act and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

26. Additionally, Microsoft learned that defendants were supplying third parties with purported study materials that infringed Microsoft's copyrights and intellectual property rights. On information and belief, defendants were selling or distributing the infringing materials to third parties in an effort to cover up their violations of the Permanent Injunction and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

27. On or about September 30, 2008, Microsoft's counsel notified defendants in writing of their violations of the Permanent Injunction and the Settlement Agreement.

28. On or about October 7, 2008, defendants' counsel responded to Microsoft and claimed that defendants had removed the infringing materials from their websites. Defendants' counsel further denied that defendants had supplied infringing materials to any third parties.

29. In or about early December 2009, Microsoft conducted further examination of purported study materials available on defendants' websites. Microsoft compared the study materials to Microsoft Certification Exams, and again determined that the materials available on defendants' websites included word-for-word copies of portions of Microsoft

1 Certification Exams, or were substantially similar to Microsoft Certification Exams, in 2 violation of the Copyright Act and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

3 30. On or about December 16, 2009, Microsoft's counsel again notified
4 defendants in writing of their violations of the Permanent Injunction and the Settlement
5 Agreement. Microsoft demanded that defendants immediately cease and desist from 6 infringing any Microsoft works, and further demanded that defendants comply within 14
7 days.

8 31. On or about December 31, 2009, defendants' counsel responded that 9 Certification Trendz "represent[ed] that it is not [in] breach or violation of the Settlement
10 Agreement with Microsoft and that Certification Trendz is not infringing any Microsoft 11 works."

12 32. On or about March 1, 2010, Microsoft's counsel notified defendants in 13 writing that Microsoft had further evidence of their continuing violations of the Permanent 14 Injunction and the Settlement Agreement and, accordingly, that defendants had failed to 15 comply with Microsoft's December 16, 2009 demand that they immediately cease and 16 desist from infringing any Microsoft works. Microsoft further demanded that defendants 17 cure all breaches within 14 days by ceasing their infringing activity.

18 33. In or about March 2010, Microsoft obtained and examined six purported
19 practice exams available on defendants' websites. Microsoft compared the practice exams
20 to Microsoft Certification Exams, and determined that the materials available on 21 defendants' websites included word-for-word copies of portions of Microsoft Certification
22 Exams, or were substantially similar to Microsoft Certification Exams, in violation of the 23 Copyright Act and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

24 34. In or about April 2010, Microsoft obtained and examined an additional 25 practice exam available on defendants' websites. Microsoft compared the practice exam to
26 Microsoft Certification Exams, and determined that the materials available on defendants'

1 websites included word-for-word copies of portions of Microsoft Certification Exams, or
2 were substantially similar to Microsoft Certification Exams, in violation of the Copyright
3 Act and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

4 35. On or about April 27, 2010 and May 4, 2010, Microsoft's counsel notified
5 defendants of their continuing violations of the Permanent Injunction and the Settlement
6 Agreement, and provided proof of infringing materials that were available on defendants'
7 websites. Microsoft demanded that defendants immediately cease and desist from 8 infringing any Microsoft works.

9 36. In or about May 2010, Microsoft obtained and examined an additional 10 practice exam available on defendants' websites. Microsoft compared the practice exam to
11 Microsoft Certification Exams, and determined that the materials available on defendants'
12 websites included word-for-word copies of portions of Microsoft Certification Exams, or
13 were substantially similar to Microsoft Certification Exams, in violation of the Copyright
14 Act and the parties' Settlement Agreement.

15 37. On or about May 14, 2010, Microsoft's counsel again notified defendants of 16 their continuing violations of the Permanent Injunction and the Settlement Agreement.
17 Microsoft demanded that defendants immediately cease and desist from infringing any 18 Microsoft works. Upon information and belief, those and other violations of the Permanent 19 Injunction and the parties' Settlement Agreement remain uncured by defendants.

20 38. Defendants have further breached their obligations under the parties'
21 Settlement Agreement by failing to fully comply with the audit provisions set forth therein.
22 On multiple occasions Microsoft was denied password access to study materials available
23 on defendants' websites, in contravention of the defendants' agreement in the Settlement
24 Agreement to make all study materials available to Microsoft for a period of five years.

39. Microsoft's counsel repeatedly notified defendants of these breaches of the parties' Settlement Agreement. Despite that notice, defendants have failed to fully and properly cure their violations.

40. In consideration of defendants' repeated violations of the Permanent Injunction and breaches of their obligations under the parties' Settlement Agreement, and defendants' failure to cure those breaches, Microsoft seeks specific performance of the contractual remedies authorized in the parties' Settlement Agreement, including an order directing nominal defendant Lundberg and others to immediately transfer to Microsoft the domain names listed in Exhibit 12 and any other domain names used by defendants in breach of the Settlement Agreement. Microsoft further seeks to recover damages and other relief available under the Copyright Act and state law, as well as its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Copyright Infringement, 17 U.S.C. § 501, et seq.

(Shahnawaz and Certification Trendz)

41. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 40 above.

42. Microsoft is the author, creator, and owner of the right, title and interest in Microsoft Certification Exams, including the copyrights evidenced by the Registration Certificates attached as Exhibits 1 through 11.

43. Defendants willfully infringed Microsoft's copyrights by reproducing and distributing, without any authorization from Microsoft, infringing copies of Microsoft Certification Exams and/or making other infringing use of Microsoft Certification Exams in the United States of America.

44. Microsoft never authorized defendants to copy or duplicate or license any of the Certification Exams, either in whole or in part, or to offer for sale or sell, or offer access

1 to, any copies of its Certification Exams or individual test questions or answers appearing 2 thereon.

3 45. As a result of the foregoing activities, defendants are liable to Microsoft for 4 willful infringement under 17 U.S.C. §501, et seq.

5 46. Microsoft has suffered and will continue to suffer, substantial and irreparable
6 damage to its business reputation and goodwill, as well as losses in an amount in excess of
7 $75,000, but not yet fully ascertained, and which will be further determined according to 8 proof. In addition to Microsoft's actual damages, Microsoft is entitled to receive any 9 profits made by defendants from their wrongful acts pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504. In the 10 alternative, Microsoft is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), which 11 should be enhanced in accordance with 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2) due to defendants' willful 12 conduct.

13 47. Microsoft has no adequate remedy at law for defendants' wrongful conduct
14 in that: (1) Microsoft's copyrights are unique and valuable properties that have no readily
15 determinable market value; (2) the infringement by defendants constitutes interference with
16 Microsoft's goodwill and customer relations; and (3) defendants' wrongful conduct and the
17 damage resulting therefrom is continuing. Microsoft is entitled therefore to injunctive relief
18 and an order freezing the domain names listed in Exhibit 12 pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502,
19 and an order impounding all infringing materials pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 503 and 509(a).

20 48. Microsoft is also entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 21 17 U.S.C. § 505.

22 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

23 Breach of Contract

24 (Shahnawaz, Certification Trendz and Nominal Defendant Lundberg)

25 49. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every 26 allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 48 above.

1 50. Microsoft and defendants entered into a written contract referred to as the 2 Settlement Agreement that among other things resulted in a dismissal of the prior litigation.

3 51. The Settlement Agreement is a valid and enforceable contract and, by its 4 terms, is to be construed and controlled by Washington law.

5 52. Microsoft has performed its obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

6 53. On the dates and under the circumstances set forth above, defendants have 7 breached their obligations under the Settlement Agreement. Defendants' breaches are 8 material and have not been cured by them.

9 54. As a direct result of defendants' breaches of the Settlement Agreement,
10 Microsoft has suffered damages and other harm.

11 55. Microsoft has suffered and will continue to suffer, substantial and irreparable
12 damage to its business reputation and goodwill, as well as losses in an amount in excess of 13 $75,000, but not yet fully ascertained, and which will be further determined according to 14 proof.

15 56. Microsoft has no adequate remedy at law for defendants' wrongful conduct
16 in that: (1) Microsoft's copyrights are unique and valuable properties that have no readily
17 determinable market value; (2) the infringement by defendants constitutes interference with
18 Microsoft's goodwill and customer relations; and (3) defendants' wrongful conduct and the
19 damage resulting therefrom is continuing. Microsoft is entitled therefore to injunctive relief
20 and specific performance of the contractual remedies authorized in the parties' Settlement
21 Agreement, including an order directing nominal defendant Lundberg and others to 22 immediately transfer to Microsoft the domain names listed in Exhibit 12 and any other
23 domain names used by defendants in breach of the Settlement Agreement.

24 57. Microsoft is also entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 25 the parties' Settlement Agreement.
26

(c) Microsoft's compensatory, consequential, and/or restitutionary damages, in an amount to be proven at trial.

(7) That the Court order defendants to pay Microsoft the cost of this action and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by Microsoft in prosecuting this action.
